Old Business

New Business

Board members discussed a request from Tom Ward with Crawfordsville School of Karate to put a grill on the sidewalk in front of 132 W. Main Street on May 19, 2018. The School of Karate will be having a re-grand opening to celebrate their remodel and will be giving away free hot dogs from 11-2. Erin Corbin moved to approve. Susan Albrecht seconded. Motion passed.

Board members discussed a request from Yovani Mondragon at 300 Sheridan Avenue to place a 30 yard dumpster on the street located in front of his property. Scott Hesler, Street Commissioner, stated on Sheridan Avenue home owners park on the street on the opposite side where the dumpster would be placed. Having the vehicles on one side and a dumpster on the other would not allow emergency vehicles down the street. Mayor Barton moved to deny the request to have the dumpster placed on street. Erin Corbin seconded. Motion passed.

Board members were to discuss bids received for the Residential Recycling Agreement. No bids were received.

Board members discussed additions made to the contract for Pell Roofing for the Fusion 54 Building. The additional cost is in the amount of $2,500.00 for the time and material for the roof repairs. Susan Albrecht moved to approve. Erin Corbin seconded. Motion passed.

Board members discussed multiple mowing requests from Barry Lewis, Code Enforcement Officer.
